

Hopkinsville, Kentucky.

CHAS. M. MEACHAM, Editor.
FRIDAY, JUNE 28, 1890.

HOPKINSVILLE, KENTUCKY.

A live and growing city of 5,000 inhabitants, situated in a county of 10,000. The Louisville and Nashville has two lines of railroad in the county and the people here are rapidly increasing in numbers. Latest tobacco growing country in the world. Wheat, corn, hay, clover and fruit produced for export in large quantities. The city has four banks with an aggregate capital of $1,000,000. A planing mill and wagon factory, three carriage factories, line factory, tobacco manufacturing, two foundries, three brickyards, iron factory, steam laundry, ice factory, two large flouring mills in the city and several in the county. Special driving park and fine opera house. Five turnpike centers in Hopkinsville. Building and Loan Association, Commercial Club, telephone exchange, numerous streets and houses and city lighted by gas. Manufactured streets and brick sidewalks all over the city. Eleven churches, two colleges, a high school and the finest system of public schools, white and colored, in the State. Western Kentucky Lunatic Asylum with a population of 200, two miles east of the city. A $100,000 court house with town clock in the dome. A fine fire department and a company of State Guards. Little River furnishes an adequate supply of water for all purposes. Real estate on rent cheap. Fine opening for woolen mill, pork packing establishment, fruit canning, tannery and many other enterprises. Climate mild and invigorating and exceedingly beautiful.

It is now Proctor not, with a little bit.

Typoid fever in its worst type has broken out among the laborers at Johnstown.

The plant of the Denver, Col. Brewing Company has been sold to an English syndicate for $650,000.

The Chicago police have entered upon a vigorous war against the gamblers of that city and Wednesday night about fifty were arrested.

A Shepherdsville mob took old Ardell, one of the murderers of an old peddler, from jail and hanged him, Wednesday.

The round trip summer rates over the various western railroads have been fixed at $100 from Louisville to San Francisco.

Two thousand Pennsylvania miners have struck against being forced to deal with the "pick-me" stores run by the companies.

A tripple collision in Pennsylvania Wednesday killed a dozen people and wounded several more. They were all freight trains.

Mrs. R. B. Hayes, wife of an individual who was somewhat prominent a decade ago, died last Tuesday at Fremont, Ohio. She was 58 years old.

Miss Mary Anderson, who is now in London, has cancelled all engagements and will not appear on the stage again until October, 1890, on account of failing health.

The Eureka Improvement Company, of St. Paul, Minn., filled this week for about 1,000,000. Assets not yet ascertained. The company had been engaged in land deals and an electric motor enterprise.

Mrs. R. B. Hayes, the wife of a former occupant of the White House, who died this week, will be remembered as the first lady who astonished Washington society by banishing wine from her state dinners.

A Tyrone, Pa., tailor is authority for the statement that on the night the water was four feet deep in his store a man floated all the way down from Bellwood on a door, and came paddling into his store to get measured for a wedding suit.

The New York World has issued its almanac for 1890 and it makes a reference book of great value, when in search of political and statistical information. It contains many interesting tables about these matters as well as a great deal of useful knowledge upon nearly every other subject. Price 40 cents.

Postmaster-General Wamaker in speaking of removals of postmasters says: "Removals are not made rapidly. There has been often much criticism, simply because of the politics involved, when the sole cause of the removal has been drunkenness, neglect of duty and clearly proved unfitness to hold the important office of Postmaster. In some cases postmasters have returned to their business occupation and allowed their offices to drift. The people who are drawing their pay from the Government ought to be compelled to give faithful service or resign, and if they do neither, the department will recommend their removal, no matter how much criticism and misapprehension of the fact may be made."

The editor of the Clarksville Tobacco Leaf wants an office cat and we are now having the city canvassed and will ship a carload of assorted felines to him this afternoon. They will be sent in a cat-tail car, via the L. & N. Railroad, provided no unseen catstrophic events. To those who think advertising does not pay, we would step aside to remark that this shipment would never have been made but for the following three-line advertisement in the last Tobacco Leaf:

"Any one having a young, mellow cat to dispose of can find a purchaser by applying at this office."

Our contemporary will please notify us of the condition in which the cats arrive, in order that we may know whether to render bill at retail or wholesale figures.

FUN ON THE LAKE.

A Party From Hopkinsville Spends St. John's Day at Earlington.

A small party of Masons feeling that they would be benefited by a day in the country or anywhere where they could breathe business from their minds and inhale the pure country air, boarded a train last Monday and stopped off at Earlington. The party consisted of Messrs. M. F. Shyer, R. H. DeTreville, J. B. Galbreath, W. H. Oliver, Ryan Hopper, William McRitt, J. T. Smith, John W. Pritchett, John Day, H. W. Tibbs and a few ladies. The party was met at the depot by a committee and brass band and had every attention shown them by their hosts. The Masonic lodge at Earlington had sent out numerous invitations to the lodges throughout this section to be with them and take part in the observance of St. John's Day, and the present can safely be estimated at 800 or 1,000 all told. Every preparation had been made for the entertainment of the guests and everybody were delighted with the way in which the day was spent. The lodge at that place is in fine working condition, rapidly growing in number, and bids fair to be one of the largest in this section of Kentucky. The dinner, which was served in picnic style, was all that anyone could desire and there was no shortage in supply, in fact the large and hungry crowd did not begin to "get away" with it.

After dinner the visitors in large numbers went to Loch Mary and spent the afternoon. Something in the way of a description of this lake will not be out of place, as there are but few of our citizens who know of its existence. This lake was made by the St. Bernard Coal Co., of which Mr. John B. Atkinson is president, and who worked untiringly on this occasion to make the celebration what it certainly was—a decided success in every way. The lake was formed by building a dam about three quarters of a mile in length—the same way in which Lake Conemaugh was formed. The water supply is furnished by the junction of two small branches. Ninety acres are under water, with an average depth of 15 feet, and is filled with different kinds of fish. A nice boat house has been built and one small steamboat, two large row boats and six or seven smaller ones float upon the lake's surface. A large park is near and it is described as being a most delightful place. The aquatic sports during the afternoon were most enjoyable.

The large crowd of lookers-on took great interest in the swimming match, the boat race, tub race, while the barrel race was particularly amusing. The festivities were kept up at night by a banquet and ball. The visitors from the city were entertained right royally, and came home feeling that the time had been profitably spent—the sluggish blood was moving faster, business and life's anxieties had been forgotten for a season, and the sweet sip of pleasure and recreation will not soon be forgotten.

Mrs. Sarah Jane Whiting was hanged at Philadelphia Tuesday for the murder of her husband and two children, whom she deliberately poisoned one after another to get insurance on their lives aggregating only $300. She was convicted upon her own confession, which was made after she had been arrested upon a charge of murder. She died with the grit and the fortitude of a nerved man and like most criminals who are executed expressed a hope to go straight to heaven.

It has been four weeks since the Johnstown flood and still the work of recovering bodies is going ahead at the rate of from five to twenty a day. A large part of the town destroyed by fire. Scarcity of food prevails and 54,000 people in the Cone maugh valley are being fed by the State. The estimate of the lives lost has again been raised to 10,000.

Miss Irene Cowden, a good-looking young school teacher has recovered a $2,500 judgment against Jno. W. Langley, representative from Floyd county in the Legislature, for defamation of character in certain vile and disparaging remarks about her chastity. The suit was for $50,000 and has been pending for two years in the U. S. Court at Frankfort, a former trial resulting in a hung jury.

Foraker has been renominated for Governor of Ohio and it is likely that Congressman Campbell will be his Democratic opponent. Ohio sometimes elects a Democratic Governor but not often enough to cause the Republicans much uneasiness this year.

TO THE FELANDS

And the Balance of 'Em Who Kept Us From Getting Another Railroad.

It is probable that in a complimentary article in our last issue of Mr. Henry J. Siles' work in the appeal of O. V. case was an unintentional injustice was done to the law firm of the Felands, who were employed to represent the county in the case in connection with Mr. Siles. No injustice was intended to the Felands or Judge Jo McCarroll, the representative of the trustees, both of whom submitted briefs. John Feland, Jr., tells us that his father, who was in Washington when the notice was given that ten days would be allowed to file briefs, on being notified succeeded in getting the Appellate Court to extend the time thirty days, so that he could prepare his brief, and that he did prepare it and had it printed in Louisville and filed. Mr. Siles had his brief printed at this office and it was put in type as he furnished the manuscript. Our impression naturally was that Mr. Feland, who was making a vigorous fight for the Collectors, and was necessarily absent from the city a great part of the time, had given his points in the case to his associate, Mr. Siles, and left the preparation of the brief to him. But it seems we were mistaken, and that neither of the gentlemen knew what the others brief contained, and that both of them were laboring faithfully to have the decision of Judge Grace affirmed in the Court of Appeals. All honor to both of them for their faithfulness to their clients. At the same time we must say that we are sorry they were successful in their efforts. This is written solely with the intention to correct any false impression that our former article may have conveyed. Mr. Feland's legal ability is too well known all over the country for any one to call it in question, and we are very sorry that he was employed on the side of the case that he so faithfully served. Mr. Siles' brief was prepared and printed in considerably less than ten days and notwithstanding the difficulties under which he labored, was a very able document. We did not see Judge McCarroll's brief, but as he has the reputation of excelling in that particular line of his profession, we are satisfied that it was prepared with his usual study and care.

MACEDONIA.

MACEDONIA June 22—Miss Adda White is visiting her cousin Mrs. W. A. White near Laurip's School house this week.

Mr. C. C. Campbell's little child died of dysentery one day last week. Mr. R. E. Hudson is as happy as if he had drawn the first prize in the Louisiana lottery, it's a girl.

Little Ezekiel, son of Mr. S. S. Croft, was bitten by a copperhead snake about two weeks ago. The little fellow suffered great agony for several days but has recovered.

Little George, an infant son of Mr. George Hall, was also bitten by a very poisonous snake yesterday morning. Mrs. Hall had taken her two little children to spend the morning with her mother Mrs. M. R. Capps. The children were playing on a pile of tobacco stalks near the barn when the little boy about two years old suddenly cried out and some one of the family picked him up and carried him to the house and when he attempted to walk he fell prostrate upon the floor and upon an examination it was found that the little fellow had been bitten on the bottom of the foot by a snake. An effective antidote was speedily applied which soon relieved the little sufferer and he was able to play around yesterday. Search was made for the snake but his snakehood had fled. The article used is a little herb which we call "King of all Poisons" or "baker-weed." It grows in swamps and on small water courses, very much resembling peppergrass except the round underside of the leaf is red and the top of the leaf is a cone shape of a purple line. It is one of the speediest and most powerful articles that belongs to the vegetable kingdom.

Officers Elected.

The Latham Light Guards held a special meeting for the election of officers last Wednesday night and J. W. Henry was elected captain. This position was offered unanimously to Mr. Thomas Rodman a short time since, but for fear that his duties at the asylum might be interfered with, he reluctantly declined serving. Walter Campbell was elected first lieutenant. Mr. Campbell, at a previous meeting, had been chosen as second lieutenant. James Garrity was elected second lieutenant. Bailey Russell was chosen orderly sergeant and Frank Bell second sergeant.

The company will now get down to regular drill work and soon secure new uniforms and equipments.

Old Cerulean.

In looking around over the country for a pleasant watering place at which to spend a few days of solid comfort it would be well to check up at old Cerulean, in Trigg county, where your every want can be supplied. Under the new management, that of S. W. Gunn & Co., everything is kept in first-class style and the water was never stronger, purer or better than at present. The fare is good enough for a king and while the young people enjoy themselves to the fullest extent, invalids find that it is "just the place" for them, many going home perfectly cured and others greatly benefited.

Linked Their Destinies.

At the Virginia Street Colored Baptist Church at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, Irvin Young and Carrie B. Glass were united in marriage. Rev. E. Williams officiating. There were only two attendants. The couple accompanied by a few friends left on the 5 o'clock p. m. train for Gallatin, Tenn., where they will spend the honeymoon. The groom is the popular Ninth street barber and his bride is a daughter of Ben Glass, until recently the Asylum cookman. Both belong to the higher circle of colored society.

A RAILROAD WRECK.

MORE THAN A DOZEN PEOPLE INJURED, SEVERAL PROBABLY FATAL.

A special from Gallatin, Tenn., to the American, dated June 26th, says: Quite a serious accident occurred on the Chesapeake & Nashville Railroad to-day at Ridge, this county. The morning train, due at Gallatin at 10 o'clock, was skimming along for its destination, when the baggage car, freight and postal car jumped the track and fell down an embankment about fifty feet. Henry Peacock, postal clerk, and Conductor E. R. Buck jumped and escaped without injury. Peacock jumped and managed to crawl back towards the track, when the coach with fourteen passengers passed over him without touching him. The car turned over three times before landing at the bottom. The passenger coach contained about fourteen passengers, and all were hurt more or less. Women screamed, and when the bottom was reached the roof of the car was torn off, when, women, children and seats were piled in one common mass. No one was killed outright, but it is feared two or three are so badly injured they will die.

"Try Ayer's Pills"

For Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and Gout. Stephen Lansing, of Yonkers, N. Y., says: "I have used Ayer's Pills for chronic Constipation. Ayer's Pills have relieved me from that trouble and also from Gout. If every victim of this disease would heed only three words of mine, I could banish Gout from the land. These words would be—'Try Ayer's Pills.'"

"By the use of Ayer's Pills alone, I cured myself permanently of rheumatism which had troubled me several years. These Pills are of one harmonious very effective, and I believe, would prove a specific in all cases of incipient Rheumatism."

No medicine could have served me in better stead.—C. C. Rock, Corner, Ayer's Bazaar, La. C. F. Hopkins, Nevada City, writes: "I have used Ayer's Pills for sixteen years, and I think they are the best Pills in the world. We keep a box of them in the house all the time. They have cured me of such headachy constipation. Since taking Ayer's Pills, I have been free from these complaints."

"I have derived great benefit from Ayer's Pills. Fifteen years ago I was taken so ill with rheumatism that I was unable to do any work. I took a box of Ayer's Pills and was entirely cured. Since that time I am never without a box of them."—Peter Christensen, Sherwood, Wis.
